Hi Christine, I was referred to you by Arielle Strem, who says she is receiving great Dutch lessons from you.

I have just moved to the Netherlands a few weeks ago, and I will be here until next summer. I was wondering if you have capacity or availability to provide lessons on weekends (my weekdays tend to be very long hours, unfortunately). My personal goals are to learn pronunciation and grow comfortable with day-to-day conversation. Please feel free to call my mobile number below or respond via email if you would wish to discuss further.

Thanks so much,
Michelle
