Dear Christine,

I am moving to the Netherlands (Eindhoven) on Saturday. I am currently level A2 in Dutch (in my feeling).

I am now looking for a tutor over skype, especially in conversational Dutch: can you please tell if there is now a place available in your course?

I saw positive reviews about your work in one of the Russian-speaking forums (<http://wap.holland.borda.ru/?1-3-0-00000208-000-40-0>). I myself come from Belarus, therefore I got very interested.

One moment, I am a bit hesitant about the best schedule for me. Maybe we can start with one hour per week, and will decide after a month if that works for me? Tuesday evening could be the best for me, but I can consider other timings for sure.

Thank you and I look forward to hearing from you!

Nadia.
